LEVEL 7-8 Proficient / Professional:

You have enough English to communicate with native speakers of English or work in a mainly English speaking office in India. Your English is not fluent - other English speakers will notice the occasional error and you should probably check your emails for spelling and grammar before you send them.

You are likely to need more practice to pass an English exam for study abroad or to make it through the group interview round of MNC placements.

Your STEP score indicates that you can do the following:

Comprehension

CAN understand moderately complex formal and informal communication related to life experience, general knowledge, and specialized or work-related situations.

CAN Understand messages for a variety of purposes like blogs newsites, and websites.

CAN interpret and use information in charts, diagrams, tables, graphs, and flow charts with moderate success.

Processing Information

CAN understand group interactions about abstract and complex ideas on familiar topics.

CAN process informal or semi-formal presentations up to about 20 minutes long.

CAN connect and integrate information from multiple sources to create an adequate response.

Interaction

CAN communicate with confidence in most daily routine social, educational and work situations

CAN talk about abstract information on a range of familiar topics using an adequate range of grammatical structures.

CAN understand extended descriptions, reports, and stories about familiar topics.

Production

CAN write for many purposes to communicate at work, with businesses, or with places providing a service.

CAN write well-organized paragraphs with good control of complex structures, spelling, and punctuation.

CAN use a range of concrete, abstract or specialized terms, and idiomatic language.
